PERINATAL CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES (PCM-Ongoing)

Perinatal case management is a participant centered, goal oriented process for assessing the needs of an individual for particular services; assisting the participant in obtaining those services; and reviewing participant accomplishments, outcomes, and barriers to completing recovery goals. Case management activities are designed to integrate, coordinate, and access necessary services in order to ensure successful recovery and treatment. Case management supports self-advocacy, helps prevent relapse through individualized attention and support services, reduces fragmentation of care, and establishes optimum communication and collaboration among providers and agencies. Perinatal case management services ensure that women and their children have access to primary medical care; primary pediatric care; gender specific alcohol and drug recovery and treatment, and other services; and therapeutic interventions for children in custody of women in treatment that may address the children's developmental needs, as well as any issues of sexual and physical abuse, and neglect. Perinatal case management services include case finding, assessment, case planning, coordination, follow-up, and reassessment.
